

Travelling in India (Mail Us : holidays@indian-tour-operators.com)

Do's & Don'ts

In case of need or desire to overstay you are advised to contract the nearest Foreigners Regional Registration Office.

It is advisable to avail pre-paid taxis./ autorickshaws or pay by meter or ask for fare chart.

Advisable to shop at Govt. Emporia/ Fixed Price shops to ensure quality & reasonable prices.

Please check power voltage before using electrical instruments. (220 / 240 V. are available in India).

Keep your valuables in hotel lockers/safe deposit vaults.

You are advised to contact the nearest Govt. of India Tourist Office / State Government Travel Agents / Tour Operators for local sight seeing & excursion tours.

Always hire Govt. approved tourist guide invariably carry an identity Card. Check about photography permission / filming at any monument. Contact the nearest Government of India Tourist Office/ Police Station State Government Tourist Office.

Change money only at Authorised Foreign Exchange outlets / Banks / Hotels & insist on receipt for money changed.

For guide map of the city tourist information contact the nearest Government of India, Tourist Office / State Government Tourist Office.

In case of loss of any documents contact the nearest Government of India Tourist Office / Police Station / State Government Tourist Office.

For medical assistance you may contact hotel or accredited hospital / nursing homes. Observe Local tradition / customs while visiting religious places.

There is prohibition on liquor in a few States. Check details from the nearest tourist office about the same. Smoking not allowed in public places & vehicles, in some states.

Don'ts

Don't encourage beggars.

Don't accept food / drink from strangers.

Export of Indian Currency is banned.

Don't be coerced into shopping by touts / guides / taxi drivers or strangers.

Don't buy articles made from rare / endangered species or animals which are banned.

For More Detail Send Us Mail at : holidays@indian-tour-operators.com